YOUTH MISSION FESTIVAL

So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, ²complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. (Philippians 2:1-2)

ALTAR FLOWERS ARE GIVEN TODAY by Loretta Englehardt, in loving memory of Christine Ann Fries, her beloved daughter, and by Bill & Debbie Schellman, in honor of Amanda's and Olive's birthdays.

THIS WEEK AT FAITH!

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD is underway! Perhaps you have noticed the “shoeboxes” in the narthex alcove... they are there for us to take home. For more than 30 years, Samaritan’s Purse has been bringing great joy and the Good News of Jesus Christ to millions of children across the globe through its Operation Christmas Child project. For many of these children, the gift-filled shoebox is the first gift they have ever received. Samaritan’s Purse partners with local churches worldwide to demonstrate God’s love in a tangible way to children in need and to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

WE BELIEVE GOD’S WORD... ON THE LORD’S SUPPER

We believe that in the Sacrament of Holy Communion Christ gives His true body and blood under the form of bread and wine for the assurance of the forgiveness of sins. We believe Jesus is truly present in the Sacrament, and as we come in faith to receive it, we receive Him. The Bible teaches that those who eat without recognizing the Lord's body, eat and drink judgment on themselves (I Corinthians 11:27-29). Those baptized and believing Christians who share our confession of faith are welcome guests at the Altar. The Pastor would be glad to answer any questions relating to our faith or practice. Anyone not confirmed or communing is welcome to come and receive a blessing.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

As We Gather... From our liturgy and Scripture readings on this Youth Mission Festival we are reminded of the immensity of God's love for us in sending His Son to suffer and die for us. God desires that all people benefit from this salvation. Motivated by God's love for us and the whole world, Christians eagerly proclaim and bear witness to this salvation in Christ!

A Silent Prayer before Worship: Lord God of the Harvest, in Your grace You have sent Your Son Jesus to redeem us from all our sins. You have called us from many nations to be witnesses of Your saving Gospel to every country, tribe, language, and people. We pray today for Your guidance to show us how to conduct the work You have given us to do with enthusiasm and joy. Give each of us a heart for souls, and sustain us by Your Word so that we may be effective sowers and reapers, for the salvation of all and to the glory of Your name! Amen.

INVOCATION

We begin our service in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen!

Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day.

Declare His glory among the nations. (Psalm 96:2-3)

Jesus commands us: "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations,

Baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,

Teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you;

And surely, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." (Matthew 28:19-20)

Jesus reminds us: "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.

He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who does not believe will be condemned." (Mark 16:15-16)

Jesus informs us: "Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day,

And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem." (Luke 24:46-47)

Jesus assures us: "If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them;

If you retain the sins of any, they are retained." (John 20:23)

Jesus promises us: "You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you;

And you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth." (Acts 1:8)

CONFESSION OF SINS

Beloved in the Lord! You have heard the commands, reminders, assurances, and promises of our Savior regarding our roles within His kingdom work. Let us examine both our hearts and our lives, for by doing so we will find reason to approach God with repentant hearts. Let us do so seeking His forgiveness.

(A moment of silence before our Savior.)

O most merciful God, who has given Your only-begotten Son to die for us, have mercy upon us and for His sake grant us forgiveness of our many sins. We have not always taken Your command to disciple the nations as seriously as we should, but rather have frequently been preoccupied with our own thoughts and desires. You have commanded us to be Your witnesses to the ends of the earth, but we must confess that all too often we fail to be witnesses in our own back yards. O Lord, have mercy upon us and by Your grace forgive us. Create within us new hearts and renew us by giving us steadfast spirits, so that we heed Your calls and proclaim the good news of Your salvation.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, has had mercy upon us and has given us His only Son to die for us, and for His sake forgives us all our sins, including those sins involved in our work in His kingdom. To all who believe on His name, He gives the privilege of being children of God and has promised them His Holy Spirit. Indeed, whoever believes and is baptized shall be saved. Grant this, Lord, unto us all. Amen.

Magnify the power of the Gospel in the hearts of Your faithful people that Your Church may spread the good news of salvation. EPISTLE READING

James 5:7-20

Patience in Suffering

⁷ Be patient, therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient about it, until it receives the early and the late rains. ⁸ You also, be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand. ⁹ Do not grumble against one another, brothers, so that you may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing at the door. ¹⁰ As an example of suffering and patience, brothers, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. ¹¹ Behold, we consider those blessed who remained steadfast. You have heard of the steadfastness of Job, and you have seen the purpose of the Lord, how the Lord is compassionate and merciful.

¹² But above all, my brothers, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or by any other oath, but let your "yes" be yes and your "no" be no, so that you may not fall under condemnation.

The Prayer of Faith

¹³ Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise. ¹⁴ Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵ And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. ¹⁶ Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working. ¹⁷ Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. ¹⁸ Then he prayed again, and heaven gave rain, and the earth bore its fruit.

¹⁹ My brothers, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and someone brings him back, ²⁰ let him know that whoever brings back a sinner from his wandering will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

GOSPEL READING

Mark 9:38-50

Anyone Not Against Us Is for Us

³⁸ John said to him, “Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us.” ³⁹ But Jesus said, “Do not stop him, for no one who does a mighty work in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me. ⁴⁰ For the one who is not against us is for us. ⁴¹ For truly, I say to you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ will by no means lose his reward.

Temptations to Sin

⁴² “Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin,^[g] it would be better for him if a great millstone were hung around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. ⁴³ And if your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life crippled than with two hands to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire. ⁴⁵ And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life lame than with two feet to be thrown into hell. ⁴⁷ And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into hell,

⁴⁸ 'where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.' ⁴⁹ For everyone will be salted with fire. ⁵⁰ Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, how will you make it salty again? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

WE BELIEVE

Verse 1 In this time of desperation When all we know is doubt and fear
There is only one foundation We believe we believe
In this broken generation When all is dark You help us see
There is only one salvation We believe we believe

Chorus We believe in God the Father We believe in Jesus Christ
We believe in the Holy Spirit And He's given us new life
We believe in the crucifixion We believe that He conquered death
We believe in the resurrection And He's coming back again (We believe)

Verse 2 So let our faith be more than anthems Greater than the songs we sing
In our weakness and temptations We believe we believe

Bridge Let the lost be found and the dead be raised
In the here and now let love invade
Let the church live loud our God will save We believe we believe
And the gates of hell will not prevail For the pow'r of God has torn the veil
Now we know Your love will never fail We believe we believe

Ending He's coming back again He's coming back again We believe we believe

MESSAGE: "SOWERS AND REAPERS"

"I planted the seed, Apollos watered it, but God has been making it grow. So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God, who makes things grow." 1 Corinthians 3:6-7

Every Christian is a seed sower. The Bible tells us we plant seeds of faith and the Holy Spirit does the rest. (Florida-Georgia District, Seed Sowers, flgadistrict.org/seedsowers)

CONFESSION OF FAITH

Luther's Explanation to the Third Article

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

I believe that I cannot by my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ, my Lord, or come to Him; But the Holy Spirit has called me by the Gospel, enlightened me with

His gifts, sanctified and kept me in true faith. In the same way He calls, gathers, enlightens and sanctifies the whole Christian Church on earth and keeps it with Jesus Christ in the one true faith. In this Christian Church He daily and richly forgives all sins to me and all believers. On the last day He will raise me and all the dead, and give to me and all believers in Christ eternal life. This is most certainly true.

PRAYERS OF GOD'S PEOPLE

Let us pray for the whole Church of God in Christ Jesus and for all people according to their needs.

Remember, Lord, Your Holy Church. May Your holy angels watch over her and guard her. Grant her peace and unity throughout the world. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayer.

Remember all leaders in Your Church, and all pastors, teachers, deaconesses and servants of Your Church. Strengthen them in the true faith, and enable them to teach it well. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayer.

Remember our public servants and all in our armed forces. Guide, bless, protect and uphold them in honor. Bring all nations into the ways of peace and justice. In Your kindness and love, grant us seasonable weather and an abundance of the fruits of the earth. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayer.

Remember all who suffer for Your name, all who are in prison, the hungry and ill-clad, the poor and the lonely, those who travel, and all who cry out to You in their time of need, especially all who have asked for our prayers [including _____]. Grant that Your holy angel may be with them always, that the evil foe may have no power over them. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayer.

Everlasting God, You have ordained and constituted the mission and ministry of Your angels and Your people in a wonderful order. Mercifully grant that as Your holy angels always serve and worship You in heaven, so by Your appointment they may also help and defend us here on earth; through Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
Amen.

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Almighty God, all that we possess is from Your loving hand. Give us grace that we may honor You with all we own, always remembering the account we must one day give to Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.” (Mark 9:50)

We need the Lord’s help to do this — and you are in the right place this Lord’s Day to receive that help through Word and Sacrament!

LORD’S PRAYER AND INTERCESSION

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.

Father, grant that the Gospel of Jesus Christ may be proclaimed among us and throughout the world in all its truth and purity, and that we and all believers may live holy and consecrated lives to the glory of Your Holy Name.

Thy Kingdom come.

Grant that the proclamation of the Gospel may bear much fruit that many men, women, and children from every nation, tribe, and language may be brought into Your Kingdom of Grace and to the eternal glory of heaven.

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Grant that we may never forget that it is Your Will that all people be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth. Grant that we may always remember that we are to be witnesses for Christ to the farthest regions of the earth. Help us, dear Lord, to remember that it is also Your will that we live a holy life, so that people may see their Savior, not only in our words, but in everything we do.

Give us this day our daily bread.

Grant that we may always remember that the earth and everything in it is Yours and that everything we have is from You. Teach us to trust You completely for our daily needs so that we may be moved to share our blessings with others and return to You a large measure of the gifts You have entrusted to us. In the countries of our foreign mission fields where the earthly blessings are far less than here, use us as resources to help provide the daily bread for the orphans and others.

And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Forgive us for all the times we have given offense and thus kept others from coming to You. Forgive us for the times that we have not been good witnesses for Christ in our own community and throughout the world. Forgive us for every sin we commit, also those of which we are unaware. Give us grateful hearts that we may forgive those who trespass against us, that we may love our enemies, bless those who curse us, do good to those who hate us, and pray for those who mistreat us so that we might by all means lead some to Christ.

And lead us not into temptation.

Grant that Satan, the world, and our own flesh may not tempt us to neglect the supreme task of the Church. Grant that we may not be tempted to squander our time while the world rushes toward eternal flames, that we may never be tempted to lose our money on luxuries and the pleasures of the world, while at the same time denying to others the Bread of Life. Grant that we may never be tempted to use our God-given talents to our own glory and selfish interests, but that we may always use these talents to proclaim the praises of Him who called us out of darkness into His marvelous light.

But deliver us from evil.

Protect us from all harm and danger, and grant that we may boldly confess our faith in Jesus Christ no matter what the circumstances, no matter what may be the result. Grant that we may be willing and happy to deny ourselves and take up the cross of self-sacrifice so that Christ may be honored. Watch over our missionaries and their families, especially Joshua, as they go into foreign lands and dangers. We commend them to Your gracious care and keeping.

For Thine is the Kingdom and the Power and the Glory, forever and ever. Amen

International Mission // The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod

The LCMS Office of International Mission recruits, trains, sends and cares for our missionaries, human care workers and international educators.

What do missionaries do? The main priority of a missionary is to bring the saving Gospel of Jesus Christ to people who have never heard the Good News. LCMS missionaries usually share that Good News in the language of the people they serve.

When the Holy Spirit begins to gather people into Christian fellowship, missionaries assist these new Christians in forming their own indigenous church leaders.

Today, the LCMS trains, sends, and supports called and appointed career, long-term, and short-term missionaries in various countries around the world and in the United States where there are mission stations, partner churches, schools, or mission relationships.

LCMS missionary teams are made up of people who focus on planting churches, leadership formation, or some type of locally initiated holistic services in areas of health, agriculture, community development, English-as-a-Foreign-Language classes, or partner support activities.

Missionary teachers also serve in international schools where missionary children, expatriates, and national children attend. Agricultural and medical missionaries are utilized when their work will strategically contribute towards reaching and gathering communities of believers so churches can be planted.

Missionaries usually spend a good deal of time when they first arrive on the field developing language skills and learning about the culture and mastering a foreign language.

The overall LCMS mission “team” consists of ordained pastors, directors of Christian education, directors of Christian outreach, deaconesses, teachers, lay ministers, Directors of Parish music, medical professionals, agriculturalists, vicars, church work program interns, retired Lutheran laity and college graduates. All are scattered across the globe working together with national partners to tell the Good News of the salvation that is in Jesus Christ.

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted.” (Hebrews 12:1-3)

Guiding Principles of LCMS Youth Gatherings

Youth Gatherings proclaim the Lordship of Jesus Christ and God's saving grace to His people through Christ. In this setting, young people grow in their personal relationship with God and grow in their fellowship of Word and Sacrament in Christ's Church.

Youth Gatherings are a vehicle by which the Church reaches out to, cares for, and affirms young people, both church and unchurched.

Youth Gatherings equip youth and adults for ministry and vocational service in a variety of settings in their congregations, communities, and world.

Youth Gatherings affirm, equip, and support adults who work with young people.

Youth Gatherings celebrate the meaning of Christian joy in all of life's situations, including transitions and crisis.

Youth Gatherings recognize and affirm the diversity of God's people.

Youth Gatherings affirm, support, and promote the ministry of LCMS Districts and congregations.

"I AM A TRUST FROM YOU, LORD!"

God has entrusted me with life, body and soul, and all my material and spiritual blessings.

By faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of God, I will care for, honor, and freely and gladly share His gifts.

Now, our God, we give You thanks, and praise Your glorious name.

But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to give as generously as this? Everything comes from you, and we have given you only what comes from your hand. -- 1 Chronicles 29:13-14

This year’s Lutheran Women in Mission Sunday theme is “Ready to Serve” based on Luke 1:38. As redeemed children of God, Lutheran Women in Mission give thanks for the opportunity to serve others as we have been served, to proclaim that Jesus is our Lord and that He came for all nations, and to respond with our mite offerings to support God’s mission. Our example has been the widow and her mites. The offering she made was observed by our Lord leading Him to share that her copper coins, her mites, were “everything she had, all she had to live on” (Mark 12:43). May our mite offerings be blessed for our Lord’s kingdom.

Lutheran Heritage Foundation (LHF) Sunday, October 20, 2024

Imagine trying to understand Scripture in all its richness without the benefit of Luther's Small Catechism, or trying to teach young children about basic Bible stories without books like A Child's Garden of Bible Stories. For Lutheran churches around the world, these situations are reality. They don't have the basic books, so vital to understanding the Lutheran faith, because no one has translated them into their languages. Guest Preacher Rev. Mark Moss shares the story of LHF.

Through the mission gifts of people like you, LHF translates, publishes, distributes and introduces books that are Bible-based, Christ-centered and Reformation-driven. LHF has published the catechism in more than 110 languages with dozens more requested. LHF has published and distributed over 1,300 titles and 3 million Lutheran books to pastors, seminary students, missionaries and churches.
